Housing Policy

For the 2017 National Basketball Championship, participating teams are required to stay at one of the Host Hotels. Traveling Teams is the official travel partner for the PrimeTime Sports 2017 National Basketball Championship. Traveling Teams has contracted rooms at Host Hotels for each Pod, so that you stay at a location reasonably close to the facilities at which your team will play. Please understand that any large event located in a metropolitan area will require some travel. PrimeTime Sports and Traveling Teams have grouped the facilities and the Host Hotels for your participating and travel convenience.

Traveling Teams has secured an outstanding choice of Host Hotels, with a wide range of prices and amenities that should fit your needs. Unless your team is from Dallas, Collin, Tarrant, Denton, or Rockwall Counties, your team will be REQUIRED to use one of the Host Hotels AND book the Host Hotel through Traveling Teams. It is not required that you limit your choices to the Host Hotels in your Pod, only that your team stay in a Host Hotel in one of the Pods and book the Hotel with Traveling Teams.

The use of Host Hotels is the best way for PrimeTime Sports to assure an adequate number of available rooms for ALL the teams participating in the Championship. Without the pre-blocking of the Host Hotels, rooms would be more expensive or not even available for participating teams.

If none of the Host Hotels blocked for the National Basketball Championship meet your housing needs, you can opt out of our Host Hotels by paying a $200 Housing Fee. This amount is due in addition to the Entry Fee and any other charges due for the team. The Housing Fee will be required of any team not staying at a Host Hotel (not including teams from Dallas, Collin, Tarrant, Denton or Rockwall Counties).

Housing Policy compliance will be confirmed at Check-In. Compliance will be based upon real time reporting from Traveling Teams and the Host Hotels as to room bookings. If a team is not in compliance with the Housing Policy based upon information provided by Traveling Teams and the Host Hotels, payment of the Housing Fee will be required as part of your Team Check-In. No waiver of the Housing Fee will be granted at Check-In. The Housing Fee, if applicable, will be due at Check-In and payment of the Housing Fee will be a condition of completing the Check-In, including the receipt of coaches' and players' credentials. If you feel the Housing Fee was inappropriately assessed to your team under the Housing Policy, you are required to pay the Housing Fee, but can submit a Request for Housing Fee Refund which will be processed after the National Basketball Championship.

Additional housing requirements:

- For your team to be considered to be compliant with the Host Hotel requirements, your team must book at least 4 rooms with the Host Hotel for a minimum of 3 nights each. Any team booking less than this minimum will be required to pay the $200 Housing Fee at Check In.
- In selecting your Host Hotel, it is important that you understand any deposit or cancellation requirements for the Hotel; this will vary by Host Hotel. You will find any special deposit or cancellation requirements in the Host Hotel description on the Traveling Teams booking web page or directly communicated to you by the Host Hotel. Traveling Teams will work with you to answer any questions you may have as to deposit and cancellation requirements.
- Compliance with the PrimeTime Sports Conduct Expectations at Hotels & Court Facilities.

PrimeTime Sports is proud of the value we offer teams for a National Basketball Championship. An important key to our ability to continue to offer this value is through the support of local communities and sponsors, including the Host Hotels. For this reason, we appreciate your compliance with the Host Hotel requirement
